To be Sold by Auction, upon the Premises

On WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 4th, 1918,

At 12 o'clock punctually.

On View Day prior to the Sale from 10 to 4.

Messrs. MATCH & Co., Ltd.,

Auctioneers,

14 & 15, College Crescent,

Telephone—Hampstead 888

Swiss Cottage, N.W. 3.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

—The highest bidder, if in due time, to be the buyer, but subject to the Auctioneer reserving the right of refusing the bidding of any party, and should any dispute arise between two or more approved bidders, or between the Auctioneer and any approved bidder, the Auctioneer may either determine the dispute himself or may put up the lot in dispute again at the highest undisputed bidding. The Vendor reserves the right to bid for and to withdraw any lot or part of lot previous to or at the time of sale.

II.—No person to advance a less sum at each bidding than shall be mentioned by the Auctioneer at the time of sale, nor be allowed to retract a bidding.

III.—Each Purchaser is, if required, to pay down immediately a deposit of five shillings in the pound, or such other sum as the Auctioneer may name, in part payment (each deposit to be applicable to any lot or all lots purchased), and to give in his name and place of abode when required; in default of which the lot or lots so purchased to be at the disposal of the Auctioneer.

IV.—The lots to be taken away with all faults, imperfections or errors of every description at the Purchaser's expense and risk before 4 p.m. on the 5th December, 1918, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid before delivery. In cases where one buyer purchases more than one lot, the whole of the amount of the lots purchased to be paid for before any one lot is delivered; also to prevent inaccuracy in delivery and inconvenience in the settlement of purchases no lot may be removed during the time of sale, and no person to be entitled to anything not described in the lots; no allowance whatsoever will be made for errors in description or quantity, but the lots are to be cleared as shown at the sale, and no lots will be transferred from one buyer to another. As the whole is on view, no warranty is given or to be implied by the description in the Catalogue.

V.—All lots shall be at the risk of the Purchaser who will be liable of any expenses that may arise from their not having been cleared in accordance with the fourth condition, and the Auctioneer will not under any circumstances hold himself responsible for loss or damage arising from fire or otherwise to any goods in his charge.

VI.—The Purchasers to be answerable for all damage they may do to any lots or to the premises in taking down or removing their respective lots, principals being responsible for the acts of their servants, and to pay for or properly repair the same before their lots are removed from the premises.

VII.—Inasmuch as the Auctioneer acts only as agent for the Vendor, he shall not be considered personally responsible for any default on the part of either Purchaser or Vendor.

VIII.—Upon failure to comply with the above conditions, the money deposited shall be forfeited; the lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be re-sold, either by public sale or private contract, and the deficiency (if any) by such second sale, together with all charges attending the same, shall be made good by the defaulter or defaulters at this present sale, and be recoverable as and for liquidated damages, but any surplus that may arise therefrom shall belong solely to the Vendor. This condition is without prejudice to the right of the Auctioneer to enforce the contracts made at this sale.

IX.—The Auctioneer shall be the sole arbitrator in all matters of dispute relating to these conditions, both as between the Vendor and the Purchasers, or between the several bidders or Purchasers, and he reserves the right of altering the arrangements of the lots, selling two or more lots as one, or in any way he may think proper.

LASTLY.—The Clerk is authorised to refuse Cheques in payment.

To save time and to prevent mistakes, each purchaser will oblige Messrs. MATCH & Co., by filling in this slip and handing it to the Auctioneer's Clerk on making the first purchase.
